Why Fifi and Ally really mean business

GLASGOW BUSINESS AWARDS - PAGES 14&15

4000 wedding and birthday cakes and more than 300,000 Danish pastries every year.

With a strong community ethos, Scout troops, schools and community groups regularly tour the firm's main bakery in Thornliebank.

Last night thrilled managing director Clare Bradford, great, great granddaughter of the founder said: "We're shocked because for us to be chosen

Acting Editor of the Evening Times Janette Harkess presented the the award said: "Every firm on this year's shortlist holds a special place in the heart of Glaswegians. Bradford's, however, emerged as a real city favourite."

Cousins Fiona Hamilton and Alison Fielding who run lifestyle store Fifi & Ally in Princes Square picked up the most entrepreneurial company title.

Alison said: "We can't really believe it." Fiona added: "We love every minute of it."

ONE of the biggest regeneration programmes of recent times, the Glasgow Fort Partnership received the award for business in the community.

The partnership was established in 2003, with wide-ranging membership drawn from public, private and voluntary sectors.
